ALUMNI RELATIONS

Alumni Office

Alumni Staff Breakfast!

On the 23rd of October, Altınbaş University Alumni Relations Office invited all alumni who are currently working within the university out for a breakfast in the lovely Litera Restaurant. Luckily, the weather was sunny and we were able to enjoy the day to the fullest. Our alumni got the chance to meet with the Rector Prof. Dr. Çağrı Erhan and General Secretary Şenay Gümüş of our university, and discuss their experience as both an alumni and staff. Amongst the delicious food and interesting discussions, a sweepstake was also held and three winners came away with some amazing prizes.

BALAT

Istanbul's most colorful neighbourhood

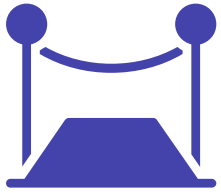

Historically home to Istanbul's Greek Orthodox and Jewish neighborhoods, Balat has recently become one of the city's most popular. Historic wooden homes are over 200-years-old in some cases and are amongst the most photographed buildings in the city. The district fairly hidden, away from most of the city's main tourist sights, on the shores of Eminönü along the Golden Horn.
