Historical museum hotel from the 19th century

The Pera Palace Hotel is a historic special category hotel and museum hotel located in the Beyoğlu (Pera) district in Istanbul. It was built in 1892 for the purpose of hosting the passengers of the Orient Express.

The founder of the Turkish Republic, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, is the most valuable guest of Pera Palas. The room where Atatürk's personal belongings such as clothes, hats, shoes and glasses are kept is open to visitors.

Detective writer Agatha Christie's 1934 novel Murder on the Orient Express was allegedly written in the Pera Palace. The hotel maintains Christie's room as a memorial to the author. The hotel serves as the main setting for the show Midnight at the Pera Palace, which was released on Netflix in March 2022.
