BUL

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH

19th century church with wrought-iron elements and gilded dome on the shore of the Golden Horn.

Also known as the Bulgarian Iron Church, is a Bulgarian Orthodox church in Balat, Istanbul, Turkey. It is famous for being made of prefabricated cast iron elements in the Neo-Byzantine style.

The church belongs to the Bulgarian Christian minority in the city. St. Stephen was the product of 19th-century experimentation with prefabricated iron churches. St. Stephen is one of the world's few surviving prefabricated cast iron churches.
