ISTANBUL ARCHAEOLOGY MUSEUMS

Museum in neoclassical style, displaying the country's rich archaeological heritage in landscaped gardens.

The Istanbul Archaeology Museums consists of three museums: Archaeological Museum, Museum of the Ancient Orient and Museum of Islamic Art. The Archaeological Museum is among the largest museums in the world, with over one million artifacts from various cultures. The origins of the museum can be traced back to the nearby Hagia Irene Church. The Ottoman Sultan Abdülaziz was impressed by the archaeological museums in Paris, London and Vienna which he visited in the summer of 1867 and ordered a similar archaeological museum to be established in Istanbul.
