KIYIKÖY

Seaside town with camping facilities and one of the oldest monasteries in the world.

Kıyıkoy, historically Medea, is a town in the Vize district of Kırklareli province which is 2 hours away from Istanbul. The town has a small beach while the surrounding area is covered by dense forest mainly of oak. Kıyıköy is identified with Salmydessus, where according to Greek mythology the Argonauts rescued Phineus from the Harpies. Kıyıkoy is one of the most suitable places for a day trip or camping from Istanbul. St. Nicholas' Monastery is a rock-cut Byzantine era Orthodox monastery, built during the time of Emperor Justinian I. It is situated about 800 m southwest of the town.
