Alumni Reunion 2023

We spent pleasant moments with our alumni at the Alumni Reunion which is held traditionally every year. Our alumni had a great interest in mini golf, ice cream and cotton candy stands in our event, which continued with karaoke and live music and ended the day with the gifts they won in the raffle.

BEYLERBEYI PALACE

19th-century palace with garden that was once the summer residence of Ottoman Sultans

The Beylerbeyi Palace is located in the Beylerbeyi neighbourhood of Üsküdar district in Istanbul, Turkey, at the Asian side of the Bosphorus. An imperial Ottoman summer residence built between 1861 and 1865, it is now situated immediately north of the First Bosphorus Bridge. It was the last place where Sultan Abdulhamid II was under house arrest before his death in 1918. Designed in the Second Empire style by Sarkis Balyan, Beylerbeyi Palace seems fairly restrained compared to the excesses of the earlier Dolmabahçe or Küçüksu palaces. The crystal chandeliers are mostly French Baccarat and the carpets are from Herakle.
